Preface

Dear Student,

The Allgemeine Studierendenausschuss (AStA) of the University of Rostock warmly welcomes you to the beautiful Hanseatic and university city of Rostock and to our university. The beginning of your studies is probably filled with excitement. You are surely curious about all the exciting things to discover in Rostock. Or maybe you have a lot of questions about finding a place to live. Maybe you'd prefer to go out and party or explore the city's cultural program. Whatever it may be – with this guide, we aim to give you an overview of various topics.

3 We would like to introduce you to the city and its districts, the Student Services (Studierendenwerk), housing associations, the Kulturticket, and the cultural offerings, as well as provide a rough idea of pricing. If you still have questions after reading this guide, AStA is, of course, available to assist you with advice and support. We are your point of contact for social issues such as study financing or studying with children. We are here for you when it comes to questions about teaching and study organization. We focus on cultural topics and organize numerous events. We are committed to sustainability, political education, and issues concerning international students. We advocate for equality and fight against discrimination together with you. For all these areas, we have representatives who are always here for you.

For now, we would like to wish you lots of fun and success in your studies. For the latest events, information, and more, feel free to follow us on Instagram (asta_unirostock) or visit our website (www.asta-rostock.de).

The Hanseatic and University City Rostock — Welcome

We are very pleased that you have chosen to study here. With over 600 years of history, the University of Rostock is the oldest university in the Baltic Sea region, and you are now a part of it.

Tradition and Innovation – is the universities motto, which is embraced and taught in over 170 different degree programs. Why not start your day at the Baltic Sea beach? It's always within your reach now. Living and studying where others go on vacation is a dream for many, but it's now your reality. To make the start of your studies easier and help alleviate any concerns, we've compiled everything important about living in the Hanseatic and University City of Rostock in this guide.

Stadtmitte

© Joachim Kloock, Hanse- und Universitätsstadt Rostock (Medienportal)

The most populous part of Rostock includes the actual historic city center as well as the Steintor-Vorstadt. In addition to the shopping street with many stores, there are numerous notable buildings, such as the main building of the University of Rostock and the Holy Cross Monastery. The city center is particularly suitable for students, as in addition to the main building, other important facilities like the administration building, several specialized libraries, and the book storage are located here. Furthermore, the city harbor, with its storage buildings, many seating options, and a fantastic view, invites you to end the day by the water with friends. The city center (Stadtmitte) is perfect for students – a mix of culture, leisure, and good transport connections.

KTV

The vibrant heart of the city is the KTV, named after the Kröpeliner Tor. Today, it forms the cities trendy district, filled with many bars, restaurants, and hip pubs. Colorful street art and charming old buildings characterize the area. Cultural offerings such as the Literaturhaus and small theaters provide plenty of variety. With the second highest population, mostly students, the KTV is a popular area to live in. Its proximity to the Ulmenstraße campus, Lindenpark, and the Ulme cafeteria, as well as excellent public transport connections (tram, bus, etc.), make the district particularly attractive to students.

© Hanse- und Universitätsstadt Rostock (Medienportal)

HANSA VIERTEL

The Hansaviertel is a small but popular residential area with villas and apartment blocks. With well-maintained historic buildings and green courtyards, it offers a relaxed atmosphere. Its centerpiece is the Ostseestadion, home to F.C. Hansa Rostock. The district is especially popular due to its excellent transport connections, shopping options, and its proximity to the Barnstorfer Wald, which offers many sports fields, an ice rink, and the Neptun swimming hall. Its closeness to various sports facilities and the University Medical Center makes the Hansaviertel particularly well-suited for medical and sports students.

SÜD- STADT

© Joachim Kloock, Hanse- und Universitätsstadt Rostock (Medienportal)

The southernmost district of Rostock is very popular among students. Many university facilities, such as the Südstadt campus, the Südstadt University Library, and numerous student residences, as well as excellent transport links to the A20 highway, the central bus station (ZOB), and the main train station, make this area highly attractive for students and young families. The district is especially appealing to students of the natural sciences due to the presence of the Institutes for Biosciences, Chemistry, and Physics. It is also well-suited for students in fields such as mechatronics, mechanical engineering, and electrical engineering.

REUTERS HAGEN

Named after the North German author Fritz Reuter, Reutershagen is primarily a mixed area of single-family homes, large apartment buildings, and prefabricated housing blocks with numerous green spaces. Known for its peaceful and green surroundings, it offers an ideal living environment for students who appreciate a relaxed atmosphere. Due to its open layout, proximity to the city center, and good shopping options, Reutershagen is very popular.

BIESTOW

The former village Biestow has been a district of Rostock since 1950, primarily consisting of multi-family homes and rental apartments. It offers a relaxed atmosphere, away from the hustle and bustle of the city. With the Barnstorfer Wald and the nearby Warnow Riverbank, Biestow provides ideal opportunities for nature lovers and sports enthusiasts. Its good public transport connections allow residents to quickly reach the city center and university locations.

GARTENSTADT

As a purely residential and recreational area, Gartenstadt is primarily characterized by simple duplexes and townhouses. For students seeking peace and relaxation, Gartenstadt offers ideal living conditions. Tennis and sports facilities, as well as large parts of the Barnstorfer Wald with the Rostock Zoo and the "Tycho Brahe" Astronomical Station, are defining features of the district. Thanks to good transport connections, the city center can also be reached quickly.

GEHLSDORF

Gehlsdorf is considered a more upscale residential area, with partially renovated old villas and newly built homes. The district is especially known for its long waterfront promenade, featuring numerous yacht and sailing clubs, as well as a fantastic view of the Rostock city harbor. In the evenings, the view from here is breathtaking. The district could be well-suited for medical students, as it is home to the Clinic and Polyclinic for Neurology and the Center for Neurological Medicine. However, living in this area tends to be more expensive.

BRINCKMANSDORF

The district named after the author John Brinckman, featuring the "Knallerballerweg," primarily consists of duplex homes and has the character of a typical suburban area. Brinckmansdorf is well-connected to the public transport network. Several bus lines link the area to the city center and other important parts of the city, making daily commuting to the university and other facilities convenient. The city center is also easily reachable by bicycle.

TOITENWINKEL

Toitenwinkel is one of the youngest residential areas in Rostock and is particularly attractive for students. Located in the southwestern part of the city, Toitenwinkel offers a mix of prefabricated buildings and new constructions, providing a wide range of living options. This diversity allows students to find both affordable rental apartments and more modern new builds that cater to the needs of young people. Tram connections to the city center ensure quick and convenient commuting.

DIERKOW

The district of Dierkow is divided into the subdivisions of Dierkow-West, Dierkow-East, and Dierkow-Neu.

While Dierkow-West and -East are characterized by many single-family and duplex homes, Dierkow-Neu mainly consists of prefabricated living developments built in the 1980s to meet the high living demand. The redevelopment of upper floors, the presence of green spaces, and the more open block layout have made the residential area more attractive. There are plenty of shopping options, affordable rents, and good public transport connections via tram, making the district appealing to students as well.

© Denkmal Evershagen

EVERSHAGEN

Evershagen is also characterized by prefabricated construction. However, thanks to extensive renovations, improvements to the living environment, and the development of new building sites, it has become an attractive location. Its good position near the city highway, solid connections to the public transport system, and relatively affordable rent prices make Evershagen a popular residential area for students. The district also features various sports facilities, schools, and social services, making it appealing for families as well.

LÜTTEN KLEIN

Lütten Klein is one of the largest districts in Rostock. It is well connected by the city highway, the S-Bahn, and public transport, with most buildings having been renovated. There are numerous shopping options, medical practices, and a cinema, making Lütten Klein an urban center in the entire northwestern part of the city. Its good location and fair rental prices have also made it very attractive for students.

GROß KLEIN

Groß Klein is the youngest district in the northwest of the Hanseatic city of Rostock. Overlooking the Unterwarnow, it offers a pleasant living environment that combines urban comfort with natural charm. The district borders the IGA Park to the south. Most of the prefabricated buildings have been renovated, reduced in height, and equipped with balconies. Several bus and tram lines connect Groß Klein to the city center. The affordable rent prices make the district particularly attractive for students.

SCHMARL

Schmarl is a district in the northeast of Rostock featuring a compact main center that includes a shopping mall, schools, and sports facilities. The prefabricated buildings are gradually being modernized. The district is particularly attractive due to its affordable rents and its proximity to the IGA Park and Warnemünde. Schmarl is mainly connected to the city center by bus lines.

Lichtenhagen

Lichtenhagen is one of the larger districts of the Hanseatic city. The area is connected to the S Bahn, tram, and city highway, allowing for quick access to Warnemünde and the city center. The district features two parks and is surrounded by many small gardens. The renovation of apartments is progressing well. Rental prices are often more affordable compared to the city center, making the district particularly attractive for students. Additionally, there are several student residences nearby that offer budget-friendly rooms.

Warnemünde

The seaside resort of Warnemünde is one of the most northern districts of Rostock. It is a traditional spa town featuring a wide sandy beach over 100 meters wide and several kilometers long, along with a distinctive maritime flair. Predominantly influenced by tourism, it attracts visitors and cruise ship passengers. However, for the locals of Rostock, Warnemünde is also one of the most popular areas of the city. Among other things, it is home to the Faculty of Computer Science and Electrical Engineering at the university. The district is very well connected by S-Bahn and bus. However, living directly by the Baltic Sea comes at a price.

TENANCY LAW

The aim of tenancy law is to establish a balanced relationship between the interests of tenants and landlords.

As a young student, you often do not know what rights you have in relation to an apartment, what to look out for when signing a rental contract, or who to contact if there are problems with the apartment. For such concerns, there are numerous assistance services available in Rostock.

One example is the Mieterschutzbund. This is a registered association that deals with the concerns of tenants and provides advice on tenancy law. It is also represented in Rostock, but consultations can be conducted nationwide by phone. However, it should be noted that the consultations are not free. You can find the prices on the websites of the respective associations.

THE RENTAL AGREEMENT

TYPICAL CONTENTS

When signing a rental contract, there are several points you should pay attention to and that must be included in the contract. As a small help, we have listed some important contents of a rental contract for you:

15

RENTAL PERIOD

- ◆ unlimited or fixed-term rental contract

RENT

- ◆ amount of the monthly base rent

SECURITY DEPOSIT

- ◆ amount of the security deposit (by law, a maximum of three months' base rent) and repayment conditions

UTILITY BILL

- ◆ list of utilities that need to be paid

NOTICE PERIOD

- ◆ details regarding termination

HOUSE RULES

- ◆ compliance with house rules (noise control, pet ownership, waste disposal, quiet hours)

Rental contracts can sometimes contain questionable clauses that may lead to problems later. To prevent this from happening to you, we have listed a few common issues here:

RENT INCREASE

- ◆ Unlawful Increases: The rent is increased without a legally valid reason, e.g., above the local comparative rent.
- ◆ Incorrect Modernization Surcharge: The landlord demands higher rent due to modernizations that were not carried out or not legally justified.

UTILITY BILL

- ◆ Unclear Billing: The utility bill is incorrect or unclear. Hidden costs or excessively high flat rates are often an issue.

SECURITY DEPOSIT AND REFUND

- ◆ Unpaid Refund: The landlord does not refund the deposit after moving out, or only partially refunds it without providing clear reasons.
- ◆ Excessive Deposit: The deposit exceeds the legally allowed three months' rent.

DEFECTS IN THE APARTMENT

- ◆ Unresolved Defects: Defects, such as mold or faulty heating, are not fixed after multiple requests.

16

TYPICAL PROBLEMS

For questions regarding tenancy law, you can also find information on the website of the Federal Ministry of Justice on topics such as rental contracts, rent increases, termination of the tenancy, and much more.

THE STUDIERENDENWERK ROSTOCK-WISMAR

D U T I E S

17

© Studierendenwerk Rostock-Wismar

The Studierendenwerk is responsible for supporting students at the universities of Rostock and Wismar in all areas. The tasks of the Studierendenwerk include:

- operating canteens and cafeterias
- managing residence halls
- study financing and financial aid (BAföG) counseling
- social and psychosocial counseling
- advocating for students' cultural and social interests
- providing childcare for students with children
- fulfilling the needs of students with disabilities and chronic illnesses
- and supporting international students and students who are refugees, asylum seekers, or immigrants

Dormitories in Rostock

The topic of living is especially difficult for many students at the beginning – a new city, new people, and far away from family and everything familiar. For this reason, the Studierendenwerk offers affordable living places for a student. It maintains various residential complexes with over 2,000 dormitory places (and the number is growing). Especially as a first year student, it's worth taking a dormitory place to get to know the city first and then look for apartments more selectively on the private rental market. The living situation in the Hanseatic city of Rostock is always a bit tense, especially at the start of the semester. If you have a dormitory place, you can calmly search for your dream apartment or shared flat in the coming semesters. With a dormitory place, you have one less worry and can start your studies and new chapter in life without stress.

The student dormitories are generally fully furnished with a bed, wardrobe, shelf, desk, chair, and ceiling light. A TV connection and internet are also available. Typically, the student dormitories consist of shared apartments with two, three, or four tenants who share a bathroom and kitchen. However, there is also the option to rent single rooms or individual apartments. Accessible living space is available, but you should contact the Studierendenwerk directly for this.

The cleaning of the shared apartment is divided among the residents, while external companies handle the cleaning of the stairways and building. The student dormitories are also equipped with laundry facilities (washing machines and dryers) and sufficient bike parking spaces. Additionally, a limited number of car parking spaces can be rented. Some dormitories also have a gym and offer other sports and leisure opportunities.

In the following table, you will find a brief overview of the locations, the number of dormitory places, and the rental prices of the dormitories. For more information, you can simply visit the homepage of the Studierendenwerk. There you will find detailed information about the amenities, prices, and much more under "Student Housing".

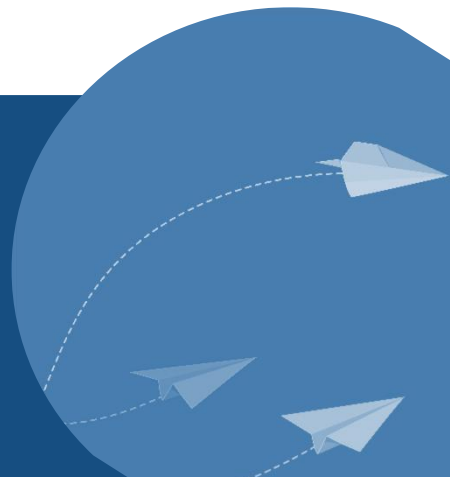

Overview:

Adress	Number of Places	Rent in €

19

Whichever dormitory you choose, each has its advantages and sometimes a few disadvantages. Whether it's good connections by tram or train to the university, direct proximity to the cafeteria and university library, or a short walk to the beach in Warnemünde.

PROS

- ⇒ costs: cheaper than private rental apartments
- ⇒ quick to meet new people
- ⇒ practical facilities: laundry rooms, study rooms
- ⇒ simple administration
- ⇒ rent includes utilities (electricity, water, internet)

DORMITORIES

CONS

- ⇒ little privacy
- ⇒ noise disturbances
- ⇒ sharing bathrooms and kitchens
- ⇒ standard furnishing in the rooms
- ⇒ hard to get a spot: waiting lists

HOW DO I GET A PLACE AT A DORMITORY?

A P P L I C A T I O N

If you want a place in a student dormitory of the Studierendenwerk Rostock-Wismar, you must first submit an application to the Studierendenwerk. Applications are processed in the order they are received. The later your application is submitted, the lower are your chances of getting a dormitory spot. Multiple applications are not given preferential treatment. Especially at the beginning of the semester, there is only a limited number of available dormitory places, and many students are looking to get one.

The waiting time for a dormitory spot in Rostock is approximately 3 to 6 months. So, you should act quickly. But don't worry – sometimes students who have been allocated a spot withdraw shortly before the semester starts, deciding to attend a different university. This means that dormitory places often become available again at the start of the semester.

Submit an application (this can be done online via the link or directly through the Studierendenwerk homepage).

Link: <https://tl1.eu/SWHRO/#home>

After submitting the online application, you will receive a confirmation email.

As soon as a room becomes available for you, the Studierendenwerk will contact you by email. (So, make sure to check your inbox regularly.)

Along with the email confirming your dormitory spot, you will receive the contract.

Send the signed contract back to the Studierendenwerk (including the required documents). Required document: Enrollment/Study certificate (can be submitted later if not yet available).

The contract is only valid once the Studierendenwerk has also signed it (this usually happens after all documents have been submitted).

You will then receive all the necessary information for your move-in from the Studierendenwerk.

When do I have to apply?

22

The allocation of dormitory places for the Rostock location for the winter semester begins each year on July 15.

Applications for the:

WINTER SEMESTER

- Students of the University of Rostock from April 1 of the year
- Students of the University of Music and Theatre from March 1 of the year

SUMMER SEMESTER

- Students of the University of Rostock from October 1 of the year
- Students of the University of Music and Theatre from September 1 of the year

Private Dormitories

In addition to the Studierendenwerk, some private companies also offer dormitory places. These are sometimes a bit more expensive than those provided by the Studierendenwerk Rostock. Below is a brief overview of the largest providers in Rostock:

Dorm	Number of Places	Rent in €
Südstadt Anbieter: "WIROtel"	50	380-530
An der Elisabethwiese Anbieter: "WIROtel"	47x single rooms 4x 3-room-apartments	348-366
Vögenstraße 2 Anbieter: "Studinest"	72x student-apartments à 26-64 m ²	482-912

Student Associations and Fraternities

23

In addition to dormitories, there are also numerous student fraternities and student associations in Rostock. Fraternities (Burschenschaften) are national-conservative student associations that are based on the principles of "Honor, Freedom, and Fatherland" from the original fraternity (Urburschenschaft) founded in 1815 near Jena. Almost all fraternities admit only men and only individuals with German citizenship. Nowadays, they are often perceived as politically right wing or even far-right.

Student associations often offer relatively affordable rent, a communal lifestyle with many excursions, and other traditions. However, you should approach this with caution. Membership in a student association can bring significant disadvantages.

Excessive alcohol consumption, outdated gender roles, and extreme political views contribute to a negative public image. Additionally, there are financial costs associated with membership. While as a student, you may only have to pay for your room, which could be fairly priced, but members are often required to continue funding their student association and its events even after graduation. Moreover, there is a significant time commitment required alongside your studies to participate in the numerous events, along with peer pressure. While it is possible to leave at any time, it is generally frowned upon.

Independent Housing Companies

Other important providers for apartments are the local housing companies. There are numerous offers from many different providers. Rental prices vary significantly depending on the housing company and the district, so it's worth comparing. Especially at the start of the semester, the private housing market in the Hanseatic city of Rostock can be tight. Student-friendly 1- and 2 room apartments are particularly sought after and rare. Sometimes, it's worth considering renting a 3- or 4-room apartment with a friend as a shared flat.

24

Another important point is waiting lists. Even the large housing companies have waiting lists for apartments. It's worth registering with several companies simultaneously as a housing seeker. You will be notified by the housing company as soon as an apartment becomes available.

Attend as many viewings and take advantage of as many offers as possible, and you will find a suitable apartment relatively quickly.

TIPPS FOR APARTMENT HUNTING

Finding an apartment doesn't always go smoothly and can sometimes take months. To help you find a place as quickly as possible, here are a few tips that may make your apartment search easier:

1. Make a good impression with friendliness and a neat appearance.
2. Read the rental contract carefully!!!
 - ✦ Read and review it thoroughly.
 - ✦ There might be strange clauses that could put you at a disadvantage later (see examples in the rental law section).
3. Have all necessary documents ready.
 - ✦ Recent salary certificates, SCHUFA, parental guarantee.
4. Be proactive.
 - ✦ Submit housing requests to housing associations.
5. Use all available channels.
 - ✦ Use websites like immowelt, ImmoScout24, or wg-gesucht.
6. Optimize your search criteria.
 - ✦ If you've had no success for months, adjust your search criteria.

WELCOME PAYMENT

In Rostock, every student who has moved to the city specifically for their studies (and whose primary residence was not previously in Rostock) is eligible to receive a welcome payment of €150. To claim this, you simply need to visit your local municipal office with your enrollment certificate, ID card or passport, and proof of residence from your landlord. The welcome payment is definitely a small financial boost to help you start your studies, so be sure not to miss out on it.

!!! Due to the lack of a legally binding and approved budget ordinance, applications for the welcome payment cannot be processed as of January 1, 2026. It is still unclear when payments will resume.

CULTURE

ticket

Since the winter semester of 2018/19, all students at the University of Rostock have had access to the Kulturticket project. With your student ID, you can attend numerous cultural events for free, and each year, more cultural institutions join the program.

29

The Volkstheater Rostock is the backbone of the cultural life of the university and Hanseatic city of Rostock, offering a diverse program that includes musical theater, drama, dance theater, and concerts. Whether you're an art lover or a newcomer, the Kunsthalle Rostock is always worth a visit. Regularly changing exhibitions, including those by young artists, make it particularly interesting. This former prestige project of East German cultural policy showcases the works of nationally and internationally renowned artists and photographers, with a focus on the Scandinavian and Baltic regions.

© Hanse- und Universitätsstadt Rostock (Medienportal)

Located in the heart of the city, next to the universities main building, is the Kulturhistorische Museum. It houses an extensive collection of cultural and art history, focusing on bourgeois life in the Mecklenburg-Vorpommern region.

In the Hanseatic and university city of Rostock, music and theatrical arts are not only consumed but also taught. The University of Music and Theatre (HMT) is one of 24 music conservatories in Germany. There are many public events to attend, ranging from orchestral music and operas to pop concerts. The former Franciscan monastery, where the HMT is housed, is also worth seeing.

30

For those interested in modern music, the M.A.U. Club offers live concerts. From well-known bands to emerging talents from Rostock, the club provides a stage for artists across all genres. There are also regular workshops.

The Youth Alternative Center (JAZ e. V.) gives young people the space to engage in youth culture, social activities, and organizational work.

The Kulturticket offers access to many other venues and events. Feel free to visit the homepage for more information:
